

HR Manager

Looking to start a career with an exciting foundation?

Here's what the successful candidate looks like:

You are a highly motivated and organized people person who wants to help build and maintain an excellent team. You are the ambassador of our corporate culture - helping to improve upon and maintain a positive and inclusive culture of collaboration and continued professional development. You're eager to build strong relationships with the entire team and promote a positive, high-performing work environment. You will be responsible for coming up with team-building exercises, and working with Centre of Excellence managers to roll out our programs, policies and projects that improve team culture. You will be the embodiment of our core values and encourage each Centre of Excellence to embrace them with enthusiasm.

Whether it's managing our health benefits program, internal complaints, updating the employee handbook or communicating and training employees on policies throughout the year, it's yours to manage with a positive and supportive spirit.

We are an "all hands-on deck" team and pitch in when necessary to get the job done. You must be willing to roll up your sleeves and do whatever's needed to ensure success of the entire team. You will be working with our awesome team at our fantastic head office in Oakville, Ontario!

Does this sound like something you can excel at? Are you excellent at your job?
